"The Blood is The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enriches and purifies the blood thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

HAY FEVER

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.
If it's painful periods with women, same cause.
If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Samuel Gompers was unanimously re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor in Norfolk on Saturday. Other officers elected were: First vice president, James Duncan, Quincy, Mass.; second vice president, John Mitchell, Indianapolis, Ind.; third vice president, James O'Connell, of Washington; treasurer, John B. Lennon, Bloomington, Ill.; secretary, Frank Morrison, Washington. The federation called for the levy of one cent, per capita assessment to aid the trades unions of Los Angeles, Cal., and all other unions in different sections of the country that may need similar assistance.

The convention, after debate over the long jurisdictional dispute between the Glass Blowers' Association and the Flint Glassworkers' Union, defeated a resolution calling for an unrestricted charter for the flint workers, and reaffirmed the Minneapolis action granting them a new charter providing seceded flint workers relinquish jurisdiction over all workers of bottles and fruit jars.

Other actions of the convention were providing for the establishment of a national labor memorial day on the second Sunday in May in each year; giving financial aid to the Colorado Federation of Labor in its struggle with capital; calling for new immigration laws that will exclude Japanese and Koreans; providing for the establishment of an independent organization of the building trades, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., this branch to settle its own international troubles and work under the direction of the executive council. The council adjourned Saturday evening.

THREE GIRLS DROWNED.

A curious disaster marked the stormy voyage of the steamer President from Seattle to San Francisco. The vessel arrived yesterday, and reported that on Friday during rough weather three girls, all under fourteen, were swept overboard and lost. Their disappearance was not noted for some time, so there was no chance to save them.

The vessel delayed her departure from Seattle for several hours to allow the gale to subside, but the weather was still rough when she sailed. Off Cape Flattery, Friday afternoon, the sea was high, but the sky was bright.

Florence Buckman, aged thirteen, and Rita and Ada Schotte, aged twelve and four years, were playing in the gangway below the bridge amidships. This gangway forms a kind of natural funnel through which the water pours when the deck is flooded.

It is supposed that a large wave struck the ship and that the water swept the children overboard. One of the crew, who was far aft, thought he saw buckets go overboard, and it was his inquiries that led to the discovery that the children were missing.

The Schotte children had come from Australia with their mother to meet their father, who lives in San Francisco. Florence Buckman was with her mother and was going from Seattle to Los Angeles.

STORM ON VIRGINIA COAST.

The Virginia coast was swept yesterday by the heaviest storm of the season, which made it extremely dangerous for small craft. The inner harbor is crowded with them. Even tugs had to anchor their tows of barges and seek shelter. The big bay boats weathered the gale in good shape and went out last night on time. A high tide was pushed in by the gale, and the wharves were in many places awash. No damage to merchandise has as yet been reported, but many small craft have been capsized or driven ashore. They are mostly oyster boats.

Even the big ferryboats between Portsmouth and Norfolk were stopped by the gale and the big seas it kicked up in the inner harbor. The lower streets were flooded to a depth of several inches.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S. Ten sacks GOOD COFFEE to be roasted and old at fifteen cents by J. C MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 25, 1907.

IN THE Gazette's Washington correspondence of Saturday two paragraphs were published concerning the tariff, which should be well considered. One was the announcement by the House republican leaders, Payne and Dalzell, that there would be no tariff revision legislation this winter, and the other, Wm. J. Bryan's method of dealing with the trusts which are protected by the tariff. Mr. Payne and Mr. Dalzell called at the White House together on Saturday and spent a half-hour in conversation with the President. It is presumed that the tariff was the subject of discussion, since the positive announcement was made by the visitors as they came away that nothing in the way of tariff legislation would be accomplished this coming session. It is stated that both Mr. Payne and Mr. Dalzell laughed heartily when reminded that the President had told certain newspaper publishers that the tariff on wood pulp would be taken off. "I haven't heard anything about it," said Mr. Dalzell, controlling his mirth sufficiently to speak. "The President did not say a word about it." "That's a terribly big duty," said Mr. Payne, sarcastically. "About 15 per cent. I should not be surprised if it broke all the papers in the country. If it closes up some of the newspaper I think it might be a good thing."

Mr. Bryan also talked with the President nearly half an hour on Saturday. He came to the White House within a few minutes of the departure of Representatives Payne and Dalzell who had announced, when they left, that there would be no tariff revision during the coming session of Congress. When asked what he thought of that announcement, Mr. Bryan said: "They are better judges of what a republican Congress will do than I am." Then he added: "If I were to decide upon the tariff matter, I would put everything on the free list that comes in competition with trust-made articles." "But Mr. Payne says that the tariff on paper pulp is only 15 per cent." some one suggested. "Then, if it is so small, why should there be any objection to removing it?" he replied. Mr. Bryan added that it was evident that nothing could be hoped for in the way of tariff revision during this, a republican, Congress.

Look here upon this picture and then on this. Compare the utterances of these men and judge who is the true patriot.

SECRETARY CORTELYOU has announced a new plan to relieve the financial deadlock. It may succeed, but it has features which cause general amazement—among them the giving of millions of profits to the banks. The issuance of $100,000,000 of United States debt certificates, running one year, at 3 per cent., was ostensibly intended to induce private persons to bring out hoarded cash and turn it over to the government. That plan Secretary Cortelyou has abandoned. Instead, he intends to let the banks, headed by the Wall street institutions, have the whole issue, upon terms dictated by the banks themselves. These are: The banks shall pay into the national treasury, in cash, $25,000,000, keeping the other $75,000,000 for purchase money, giving proper security. For this $25,000,000 they will receive the $100,000,000 in certificates. These they will deposit in the treasury, and will be allowed to issue against them $100,000,000 of new banknote currency. Obviously, this will add to the available supply of money. But it gives to the banks amazing profits, as this simple computation shows: The banks pay into the treasury $25,000,000. They receive during the year 3 per cent. interest on she $100,000,000 of United States certificates, or $3,000,000. They acquire $100,000,000 of new banknote currency, which they can loan at a minimum of 6 per cent., yielding interest of $6,000,000. The banks' total revenue from the deal is, therefore, $9,000,000. As their total outlay is only $25,000,000, their net profit is thirty-six per cent. Another curious phase is this: Secretary Cortelyou adds $100,000,000 to the public debt, upon which the people must pay 3 per cent. interest. He leaves in the banks $75,000,000 of the money yielded by the certificates, without exacting a penny of interest for it. In other words, the government pays 3 per cent. interest to the banks on its own deposits!

SECRETARY CORTELYOU has accepted terms proposed by the financial interests of New York. With $225,000,000 of government funds on deposit in national banks, a big part of it in those under Wall street control, he was in position to dictate what should be done. But he failed to use his power, and was frightened or cajoled into agreeing to what the New York bankers demanded. Plainly stated, the government surrendered to Wall street at a show of power. The real power rested in the hands of Mr. Cortelyou. By a stroke of the pen he could have ordered the banks to pay back into the Treasury the nation's funds on deposit with them. Against these deposits the government holds securities as collateral, which it has power to sell should the funds be not returned when called for. More than this, the United States, under the national bank act, is preferred creditor of every national bank. But the New York bankers stood up the Secretary of the Treasury, to use a slang expression. At all events, there is no indication that he made use of the forces at his command. They could have been used effectively, and had they been, the outcome of Friday night's Washington conferences at the White House would have been different and far better for the country. New York fights for what she wants. She threatens those who oppose. Quite likely there was something of this kind. Her banks refuse point blank to pay out what they owe to banks outside of the metropolis and impudently ask the rest of the country, "What are you going to do about it?"

THE democrats of the Ninth district in mass meeting assembled at Bristol, on Saturday, "laid down" and decided not to nominate a candidate for Congress in the special election to be held on December 17th, thus giving the republicans full sway in that district. But the democrats in southwestern Virginia are queer ducks, any way.

IT should not be forgotten that those who wish to vote at the coming spring election must pay their capitation tax before December 5th next.

From Washington

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, Nov. 25.

Finance occupied a good share of the President's time today. He talked with Senator Hansbrough about the bill the latter contemplates introducing which will provide for a government bank and had a long conference with Representative Hull of Iowa, who came to indorse the plan of relief put forward by ex-Secretary Shaw.

What are said to be gratifying reports of improvement in the financial situation reached the Treasury Department today. Advices that the money gates had been raised by the New York City banks and that currency in large quantities was being sent into the interior, was very pleasing. The hope in high official circles is that the end of the flurry is in sight and that confidence is being rapidly restored. Secretary Cortelyou's cutting of all red-tape in the taking out of additional circulation and the securing of public deposits it is said, is enabling the three per cent gold certificates to perform their desired function of directly relieving the money market a few hours after their purchase by the banks. The new certificates, which will be of the size of a dollar bill, and contain the vignette of Alexander Hamilton, will be ready for distribution in a few days.

The charge of illegality, directed toward the government's issue of three per cent. gold certificates of indebtedness by Chairman Fowler of the House currency committee, will receive no official notice from high treasury officials. It is understood that the Secretary's annual report, which will come from the printer today, will deal at some length with conditions which he felt made it necessary to issue certificates and Panama canal bonds.

Senators Gamble, of South Dakota, and Hansbrough, of North Dakota, and Representative Hull, of Iowa, came out in strong third term interviews today. The Senators declared that the whole northwest is "for" the President again. "No other candidate is even mentioned," said Gamble. President Roosevelt made an effort today to bring about peace between Senators Gamble and Kittredge. He got them both in his office at the same time but when they left the White House they were as far apart as ever.

Orders were today issued by the War Department relieving the infantry, cavalry and field artillery that have been on duty at the Jamestown Exposition and ordering them to proceed to their proper stations on or about December 1.

So serious has become the problem of how to maintain the army at the authorized strength, that Adjutant General Ainsworth, in his annual report, suggests that conscription may be found to be the only remedy. The figures showing the falling off of enlistments and the increase of desertions are absolutely startling. Enlistments decreased from 33,404 in 1905, to 24,013 in 1906, and to 19,943 in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1907. Nearly half of the army was discharged, dismissed, deserted or died during the year.

Senator Gallinger announces that he will introduce a new shipping bill, providing for a postal subvention for Pacific and South American ports, the passage of which will be recommended in the President's message.

With a bullet in his brain, C. W. Schneider of Clintondale, Ulster county, New York, was found at 5 a. m., today in an unconscious condition in Lafayette Square, just opposite the White House. A pistol lay near by. Schneider was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where he died later. In his pocket was a deposit book on the Brooklyn Trust Company. Schneider was seen at the races Saturday afternoon and later was driven to a local store where he purchased a revolver.

The special service squadron, consisting of the cruisers Tennessee and Washington, advance guard of the battleship fleet, have reported their arrival yesterday at Punta Arenas, Straits of Magellan.

"The Association and the Working man" was the subject of an address, delivered by Secretary Straus, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, at today's session of the convention of Young Men's Christian Associations of North America.

The fair weather today brought a larger attendance at the Benning races.

The Walsh Trial.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Supposed signers of notes for millions of dollars found among the Walsh bank assets today declared they were unaware of the existence of these "securities" until notified by the government. Walsh and his assistants, the government alleges, drew the names they used from the pay roll of the banker's enterprises. Without being consulted some of these men testified their names were affixed to notes for $92,000 a piece.

Without apparent provocation B. Rodiques, a forest reserve inspector, this morning entered the room of C. B. Anderson, a lumberman, at the Palmer Hotel in Alamosa, Col., and stabbed him to death in his sleep, and then stabbed three other guests. Two of them will die. Later City Marshall Baumaster shot him dead.

News of the Day.

Frank T. Fitzgerald, surrogate of New York county, died at his home in Riverside Drive today.

At Cambridge, Mass., on Saturday, Yale defeated Harvard in the football game by a score of 12 to 0.

Elvira Giordano dropped dead while dancing in the ballet during the performance of "Mignon," in Oakland, Cal., yesterday.

At Annapolis, on Saturday, the Midshipmen won from the football eleven of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute by a score of 12 to 0.

The second trial of Harry Thaw will again be postponed until January. His counsel has applied to the court for permission to inspect the secret evidence presented before the lunacy commission during the first trial.

John Ayling, step-son of John Morley, Secretary of State for India, was sentenced today in Edinburgh to ten years penal servitude for forging the names of his step-father and several Edinburgh merchants to documents representing $66,000.

French troops have killed thirty Moors and wounded as many more and are shelling Arab villages in the vicinity of Port Said in punishment for the ambushing of a reconnoitering party in a gorge some distance from the town yesterday. The inhabitants are fleeing to the mountains.

The court-martial began in Vladivostok today of 198 of the sappers and sailors accused of participation in the military mutiny of October 29, and the outbreak among seamen of three destroyers in the harbor here the following day. It has been reported 500 of the mutineers were shot some time ago.

The United States Exchange Bank, at 25 West One Hundred and Twenty Fifth street, New York, which closed about a month ago, reopened its doors today. A majority of the depositors have signed an agreement not to withdraw more than a certain per cent. of their deposits in the next six months.

With her infant in her arms and her three other small children tied to her with ropes, Mrs. Margaret Deters, aged twenty-eight years, jumped into the River Des Peres near St. Louis on Saturday in an attempt to drown herself and her children. The plunge into the cold water caused the terror-stricken children to scream. Policeman Reynolds heard, and rescued the woman and children. At the police station Mrs. Deters said she had left home Friday evening and had wandered around all night before determining to drown her children and herself.

The mysterious death of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Smith, of New Rochelle, N. Y., on Saturday, has been explained. Mrs. Smith shot her husband while he was asleep. Then she spent an hour arranging to fire the house by laying a train of inflammables from two barrels of oil in the cellar. After she had set the spark to the tinder and when the flames had eaten their way into the room in which she was, Mrs. Smith hailed the firemen who were pounding for admittance without, then lay down on a bed and sent a bullet through her heart. She claimed to be an heiress and had married under the name of another woman and traded on it for years. She had once been in an insane asylum. None of the woman's alleged relatives, the Bulkleys, of Connecticut, have appeared to claim her body, and it is now believed that they never will, as they say the woman is an imposter who has given them a lot of trouble by appropriating their name for her matrimonal adventures.

Virginia News.

The new Catholic church, which cost $28,000, will be dedicated at Harrisonburg on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Susan Woodward, widow of Joseph Woodward, died at her home in Georgetown, D. C., yesterday. She was a Miss Shacklett, of Delaplane, and was 63 years old.

The beautiful antique furniture and bric-a-brac with which the Virginia building at the Jamestown Exposition is furnished will be offered for sale to individual purchasers.

Abram N. Birkhead, aged seventy-three, died suddenly Thursday at his home, near Hamilton. He was a native of Missouri, and is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Nixon, daughter of the late Jonah Nixon, of Woodburn.

A rifle bullet passed between the heads of William D. Coldwell, of Hanover, speaker of the last house of delegates, and a Hanover farmer, who occupied an adjoining seat on an electric car, on its way from Richmond to Ashland yesterday evening.

John E. Broaddus, 70 years old, who held public offices in Henrico county over a period of 40 years, having been deputy sheriff, deputy treasurer and later clerk of the Circuit Court, died at his home, near Glen Allen, on Saturday, of Bright's disease.

A dispatch sent out from Washington says those politicians in Virginia who have been hoping that, because the Jamestown Exposition did not prove all that was desired and was not a financial success, President Harry Tucker would be forced out of the race for governor of the State to succeed Governor Swanson, may be surprised to learn that not only will Mr. Tucker not retire to private life when the exposition comes to an end but that he is now preparing one of the most vigorous and stirring campaigns in the State's political history.

This will probably be the last week of the Jamestown Exposition. Set aside by the exposition authorities as a special day in honor of General Fitzhugh Lee, the first head of the enterprise, tomorrow will be the occasion for a great outpouring of Virginians, a distinct movement having spread to all parts of the State to make this event one of the most notable in the history of the show, to do honor to the man who laid the foundations of the exposition, but who did not live to see the fruits of his labors. The principal address on the occasion will be delivered by Major R. W. Hunter.

A Hard Debt to Pay

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

RACING REVIVAL.

Gossip at Benningas race track has it that Virginians favorable to racing are sure of getting a racing bill through the legislature which will sit in Richmond this winter.

O'Neil Sevier, writing to the New York Morning Telegraph, says:

There is no outcry against the thoroughbred or against good clean racing in the Old Dominion, the country of Washington, Madison, Jefferson, Monroe, the Lees and the Randolphs. Virginia is indeed awakening to the importance of encouraging breeders of thoroughbreds to buy up her vast tracts of blue grass and establish stock farms upon them. The wealth of central Kentucky is comprised in its great stock farms. And Virginia was a great breeding State when Kentucky was crude and new. The ravages of the great civil war, which touched Kentucky but lightly, wiped out Virginia's breeding industry. Her thoroughbreds were confiscated for sterner work than racing by the contending armies in the four years from the spring of 1861 to the spring of 1865, and the men who bred and owned them were impoverished.

Virginia has concluded that the most effective way to encourage breeders to buy up her lands and cover them with finely bred horses is to foster racing. Already public spirited horsemen in various parts of the State—the Oxnards and the Dulaney's, of Fauquier; the Nevilles, of Loudoun; the Breckinridges, of Botetourt; the Hancocks, the Chamberlains and the Garths, of Albemarle; the Kerrs and the Maddoxes, of Warrenton—are at work framing a bill which will be acceptable to the whole people of the State.

The framers of this Virginia bill seek to profit by the good examples of the framers of racing bills in other States and to avoid their mistakes. It is probable that Captain Breckinridge, of Fincastle, may introduce the bill. Captain Breckinridge is the right man to introduce such a bill. He represents an ancient Virginia family which has sent virile branches into many States and produced many brilliant public men. Moreover, he and his family have wide acres of blue-grass in the southwestern part of the State. His son, Hunter G. Breckinridge, is a breeder on rather an extensive scale at Catawba Farm, near Fincastle.

If the Virginians pass a bill there will be racing next season at Richmond, Norfolk, Lynchburg and Roanoke, and ultimately Alexandria. There are tracks of respectable proportions at Richmond and Norfolk already, and in anticipation of a favorable reception by the legislature of a proposition to legalize the sport arrangements are making for enlarging them.

Under proper restrictions racing at these Virginia towns will pay handsomely. No State of the South is advancing in material prosperity more than is the Old Dominion, and the people, urban and rural, were always strong for sport. There has been no racing in Virginia, save at county fairs, for years, yet the Old Dominion develops more good hunters and steeplechasers than any other State where horses are bred, and she has furnished a veritable legion of first-class riders. The racing feature of the county fairs is by all odds the most attractive feature.

That the construction of a first-class plant at or near Alexandria will follow the passage of a racing bill is inevitable. Alexandria is itself one of the biggest towns in the State. It has a wealthy population of above 15,000, and it is as easy of access as is Bennings. Since the construction of the fine new steel bridge over the Potomac, Southern Railway trains can easily get from the Union station at Capitol Hill to Alexandria as quickly as the trolley cars get to Bennings track from the corner of Fifteenth street and New York avenue.

Bennings has long since outlived its usefulness as a race track. The course is too small and its management is too unpopular. There are in Virginia today a number of men of wealth anxious to build a fine modern mile and a quarter track with appropriate chutes; a fine steeplechase field and commodious stands, because they believe that such an enterprise will pay.

That the project to get a racing bill through the Virginia legislature will receive the support of the Bennings folk is hardly to be expected. The construction at Alexandria of a first-class racing plant will, of course, put Bennings out of business. But the opposition of Bennings can do no harm to Richmond, nor will it prevent the Jockey Club of New York from giving a first-class track at Alexandria full and proper recognition and support. The Jockey Club controls racing in the east because the Coney Island, Brooklyn, Queens County and Metropolitan Jockey Clubs and the Brighton, Saratega and Westchester associations agree that it shall. The substantial and fair-minded men of these concerns will never consent to the discrimination against a Virginian course in favor of Bennings or any other track.

NO NOMINATION.

The democratic mass meeting of the Ninth Virginia district, held in Bristol Saturday afternoon, in pursuance to a call of the district committee, decided against nominating a candidate for Congress to be voted for at the special election December 17, at which time a successor to the late Congressman Slemp is to be chosen. Former Gov. J. Hoge Tyler was elected chairman of the meeting, and in his speech urged the democrats to make a nomination. E. Lee Trinkle, of Wytheville; Daniel Trigg, of Abingdon; Wyndham Robertson, of Washington county, and others favored nominating, but the opposing faction, led by former Congressman W. E. Rhea and Herbert O. Peters, of Bristol, carried their point by six votes after a stormy meeting. Only about half the counties were represented. This leaves the contest for Congress between Bascomb Slemp, the republican nominee, and David F. Bailey, independent republican.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Mrs. Bradley's Trial.

Washington, Nov. 25.—A new phase of the trial of Mrs. Bradley, which entered upon its third week today, has arisen as a source of perplexity for her attorneys.

The greater part of the week will be given up to the testimony of the experts who will testify as to Mr. Bradley's sanity when she did the shooting. If she is acquitted on this ground, it is possible, according to the District code, that she will be held for another trial, in which the judgment of her present sanity will be delegated either to the jury hearing the present case, or another which may be appointed. Mrs. Bradley entered the court room today apparently fortified with strong hopes of success. Dr. Hill, one of the experts, who will testify in her behalf, sat directly beside her in court, opposite the alienists who are assisting the government. When court opened, the scraps of paper found in Mrs. Bradley's room in the Raleigh Hotel, after the tragedy, were first read to the jury. One read: "These are letters from Annie Adams, Maud Adams' mother. Please preserve them."

Another read: "If there is need in defense to show any rashness."

These scraps were placed in evidence by the government, as indicating Mrs. Bradley's intent to do the shooting and two policemen identified them.

Dr. Wm. Barton, of Washington, was the first expert called by the defense.

"I have been profoundly impressed," said Dr. Barton, in examination, "with the marked effect of sepsio, or septic poison, upon the nervous system of women. There is a direct connection between it and insanity."

The defense in its evidence has laid particular stress upon the septic poisoning with which Mrs. Bradley had been affected, as a result, to a large extent, of the various operations she had under gone. "In my own experience, frequent operations of a criminal nature, are a cause of insanity," said Dr. Barton. Judge Powers thereupon announced that he would read the hypothetical question. It contained fifteen thousand words and was a full summary of all the events narrated in the testimony of the many witnesses, arranged in orderly and logical sense, beginning with the remote evidences in Mrs. Bradley's family and ending with the shooting of Senator Brown, and ended, "Assuming all these facts to be true, what do you say as to whether, when the fatal shot was fired, the patient was sane or insane?"

When court adjourned at 12:30 for recess, Dr. Barton was still listening to the question, which was about two thirds concluded.

Thirteen Persons Perish.

New York, Nov. 25.—Thirteen persons perished today in a fire, asserted by the police to have been of incendiary origin, which swept the four-story brick tenement at 2121 Second avenue, at the northwest corner of 109th street. While the fire was in progress another blaze was discovered at 2112 Second avenue, half a block below the tenement. There are evidences this fire was also of incendiary origin and the police believe some one, probably a member of the Black Hand Society, evidently tried to "clean out" the community. Thirteen victims were taken to the East One-hundred and fourth street police station so badly burned that in some cases identification will be almost impossible.

A saloon occupied the ground floor of the tenement. Approach to the living apartments above is by a stairway on One hundred and ninth street, directly behind the saloon. It was in this narrow hall way that the fire started. Police and firemen say the rapidity with which the flames spread indicates that oil was used freely.

Giuesseppi Cusdano, keeper of the saloon, discovered the fire while getting ready to open for the day. His wife, mother-in-law and four children were asleep on the floor above. Cusdano dashed up the burning stairway, caught up his seven year-old-son and fought his way to the street. His wife and other members of the family followed and escaped injury.

The thirteen victims were found together, piled in one room on the top floor. All had been overcome trying to reach the fire escape in the rear of the building. When firemen arrived on the scene the flames were gushing from every window.

The fire at 2112 Second avenue started in a basement under a plumbing shop occupied until recently by S. Fruchter. Twenty-four families occupy the building. Firemen were already at work fighting the other fire when the second blaze was discovered and they made short work of it.

A scuttle which had been nailed shut, preventing the inmates of the building from reaching the roof after they had climbed to the top floor, is held responsible for the large number of victims by the authorities. An investigation will be made to discover who is responsible for the scuttle being fast ened.

Burned to Death.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 25.—Already three sales girls have been taken from the fire in the William Windhorst dry goods store at twelfth and Main streets and other employes say at least five more are in the flames. The fire will reach a loss of half a million dollars. The fire was caused by crossed electric wiring in the Main street show window. It spread so quickly that the firemen were unable to check it.

One girl, Miss Julia Hagerdorf, jumped from a third story window. She is dying in the hospital. Two others, one a cash girl, jumped from the second floor and were taken to the hospital in a critical condition. Firemen rescued two women, one of them unconscious, from perilous positions from the third floor.

Banks Resume Payment.

New York, Nov. 25.—New York banks in the financial district began releasing cash for loans today. It is believed the total will reach several million dollars by the closing hour.

Bankers attribute their ability to release funds to the treasury certificates, which began to be taken up today, immediately followed by the issuance of notes against them.

It is the general impression that the banks throughout the country will resume currency payments within a few days. Financiers agree that this will mark the termination of the most serious phase of the crisis, though it is the opinion of most financiers that its effect may be felt, to a decreasing extent, for several months.

Killed His Father.

Brooklyn, N. Y. Nov. 25.—Seventeen-year-old Peter Lindenmeir, although held without bond on a charge of murder, is regarded as a hero by the occupants of the four-story flat house on Grand street, where he lives. He is the youth who wrested a 38-calibre revolver from the hands of his father, Frederick Lindnmeir, Sunday, after the elder man had beaten and kicked his wife and fired one shot at her, and put a bullet through his head which caused death instantly. The elder Lindenmeir was drunk at the time, it is alleged by friends of the boy. The coroner will hold an inquest tonight, when it is possible the boy may be exonorated on the ground that he fired the fatal shot in self-defense.

Narrow Escape of Taft's Train.

Karasnoyarsk, Siberia, Nov. 25.—How narrow an escape Secretary Taft's train had from a serious wreck on the Trans-Siberian railway at Chita yesterday has just leaked out. A switch which should have been closed for its passage was left open instead, and the error was discovered by a railroad employe barely in time to prevent disaster. Had the train been thrown upon the siding it would have crashed into a string of freight cars.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Nov. 25.—That a postponement of the trial of Harry K. Thaw from December 20, the date now set for it, will in all probability be asked, was admitted today by both the District Attorney's office and Thaw's counsel. The fact that the defense will probably ask a change of venue on the ground that a fair trial for their client is impossible in New York, may cause the postponment to be until late in January.

To be Made Cardinals.

Rome, Nov. 25.—Archbishops Lucon of Rheims, and Andrieu, of Marseilles, will be made Cardinals at the next secret consistory December 16. At a public consistory December 19 red hats will be conferred on Cardinals Dinaldini, former Papal Nuncio to King Alfonso, court, and Aguirre, Archbishop of Burcos, who were given places in the Sacred College at the last consistory.

Mr. Cleveland's Health.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 25.—Grover Cleveland, who has been very ill at his home here of intestinal trouble since Thursday, is much better today. Mrs. Cleveland said this morning there is no immediate danger of a recurrence of the malady. "We are not alarmed now," she said, "and expect an immediate recovery, although he is very weak."

While arriving from Lake View to Angola near Buffalo, N. Y., last night John Mulhorn and Gus Bogoon lost their way and drove into Delaware Creek and were drowned. Their bodies were found today.

New York Stock Market.

The market ruled generally heavy all through the first hour and at the end of that period prices declines ranging from 1 to 1 1-2 points, with an exception that decline of two points in Missouri Pacific. The changes in the management are construed in the exchange as indicating coming strained relations with labor organizations and some of the bear operators regarded this as an unfavorable factor in the market. Government bonds unchanged; other bonds slightly lower.

OPPOSES THE BOND ISSUE.

Representative Fowler, chairman of the House committee on banking and currency, on Saturday gave out a statement regarding the issue of Panama canal bonds and Treasury certificates:

"Personally," said Mr. Fowler, "and from a party standpoint, it is unpleasant for me to disapprove the action of the republican administration, but my study of the questions involved and my duty to the police compel me to set forth the reasons why the action of the administration is surprising, extraordinary, unwarranted and most unfortunate.

He makes a sharp but just attack on the President and declares that the interest-bearing debt should not have been increased, and that such increase is clearly in violation of law.

Mr. Fowler's opposition is said to have blasted the administration's hopes of early financial legislation in Congress.

The northeast gale which swept along the Atlantic coast yesterday was especially severe in the vicinity of Delaware Breakwater. One life was lost as a direct result of the heavy seas and a schooner was blown ashore and last night was in danger of being pounded to pieces. HOSE FOR FIRE DEPARTMENT.

It is expected that tomorrow night the Fire Wardens will make application to the City Council for an appropriation of nine hundred or one thousand dollars to purchase additional hose for the two steam fire engine companies. On September 27, 1904, a communication was read in Council from Chief Pettey asking for an appropriation, with the request that "you (council) will accord this communication an early and favorable consideration, as the supply of hose on hand at present is inadequate to meet the demands of the department." The letter of the chief was addressed to the Board of Fire Wardens and was forwarded to the City Council with the following endorsement signed by its secretary, Mr. C. J. W. Summers. "Gentlemen: We herewith refer to you the application of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department for hose, and respectfully recommend that his request be granted." The papers were referred to the joint committee on finance and public property, which committee on November 22nd recommended an appropriation of nine hundred dollars. Early in the year 1905, hose (one thousand feet) was purchased of the Fabric Fire Hose Company, the Reliance receiving 700, and the Columbia 300 feet. About one year prior to this purchase, or on December 19, 1903, the city paid James Boyd & Brother of Philadelphia, for 1,000 feet, the Reliance, at that date, receiving 600 feet, and the Columbia, 400 feet. Chief Pettey in his letter to the fire wardens in 1904, and to which we have referred, said that "the Reliance had 800 feet of serviceable, and 900 feet of unserviceable hose, and the Columbia 1,800 feet of serviceable, and 500 feet unserviceable hose." It is not known by the City Council what is the condition, or what amount of hose the city uses, as the wardens have not as yet apprised them. This information will perhaps be furnished to Council on Tuesday night.

ACCIDENT TO A FREIGHT CAR.

A freight car on the electric railway jumped the track a few yards north of the draw in Hunting creek bridge about five o'clock last Saturday evening, and after running some distance on the ties plunged into the creek and settled in about four feet of water. Motorman Samuel Park, Trolleyman Otis Allen and a colored man named Daniel Smith, who is employed by the company remained on the car. The first-named was painfully hurt, but Allen and Smith escaped with minor injuries. The two last named went to the assistance of Mr. Park, and he was taken off the car. Later he was conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital, but subsequently went to his home. The car was on its way to Mount Vernon when the accident occurred, and when the news of the mishap reached this city all sorts of rumors were circulated as to the seriousness of the accident. The facts, however, were soon ascertained. The ill-fated car had aboard a load of fire brick for the power house at Four Mile Run, although the car at the time it went overboard was bound for Mount Vernon. Superintendent Colvin and Assistant Superintendent Clift left here on a special car about 9 o'clock Saturday night far the scene of the accident, for the purpose of raising the car. They were accompanied by a crew of eight or ten men. The car, however, remained in the water yesterday, but it will be raised today.

WOMAN CUT.

A difficulty occurred last Saturday night between several colored women in front of a saloon in the northeastern section of this city, during which Louise Jackson was cut on the hip, right arm and shoulder. It is said that the cutting was done by Pinkey Cross, who used a razor on the Jackson woman. The accused was arrested by Officers Beach and Garvey, and this morning she was brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court. Her case was postponed in the absence of certain witnesses.

CASE ARGUED.

The case of Mary A. Burroughs against the Knights of Columbus, a fraternal order, of New Haven, Conn., in which the plaintiff seeks to recover the sum of $1,000, representing the amount of a policy held by her late son, William J. Burroughs, was argued today in the Court of Appeals. The case came up in the Corporation Court in this city, and the plaintiff secured a verdict. The order, however, appealed from the decision of the lower court.

The committee appointed at a recent meeting to devise a plan of organization for a local camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans has issued a call for Sons of Confederate veterans and veterans to meet tonight at 8 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall. Mr. Robert E. Lee, jr., of Fairfax county, will be the principal speaker. Rev. Mr. Morton, rector of Christ Church, and several others have accepted the invitation of the committee to be present and address the meeting.

LEG AMPUTATED.

Edward L. Mahoney, a young man, who resides at 110 south Henry street, a freight brakeman on the Southern Railway, had his left foot and leg badly crushed by falling from a moving train near Bealeton last Saturday. He was brought to the Alexandria Hospital, where later it was found necessary to amputate the injured leg below the knee.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Several boys, charged with gambling, were dismissed with an admonition.

Pinky Cross, colored, charged with cutting Louise Jackson, also colored, had her case continued.

The race at the skating rink last Saturday evening was won by the first relay team, the members being Leo and John Sweeney, Chilcott and Reeves. The second team was composed of Cook, Kidwell, B. Sweeney and Finks.

ST. MARY'S ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION.

Yesterday afternoon St. Mary's Academy opened wide her doors to welcome back her graduates who had come in response to an invitation from Alma Mater for the purpose of forming an Alumnae Association. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, the following responded when the honor roll of the Academy—the names of all who boast the medal and diploma of the institution—was read: Mrs. Mary Lanron Quinn, Mrs. Mary Rafferty Quinn, the Misses Angela Nevitt, Bridget T. Green, Louise Kearney, Katharine McKenna, Sallie Harlowe, Annie Igoe, Genevieve Hanrahan, Myrtle Goods, Mrs. Mildred Ficklin Echolls, the Misses Mary Nugent Mattie Crilly, Gertrude Crilly, Lillian Crilly, Rose Crilly, Emma Willis, Leola Perry and Mary Walker. Regrets were received from Mrs. Maud Roche Warren, and the Misses Mary Harlowe, Estelle Kearney and Ethel McDonald. Had the weather been favorable, there is no doubt a much larger number would have been in evidence, as all former graduates are enthusiastic on the timeliness of the association.

After some time had been spent in renewing old friendships and forming new ones, the graduates proceeded to the adoption of a constitution and the election of officers for "St. Mary's Alumnae Association." The following are the officers for the coming year:

President, Miss Sallie Harlowe; vice president, Miss Mattie Crilly; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Rafferty Quinn; secretary, Miss Emma Willis; historian, Miss Gertrude Crilly.

October fifteenth was the day appointed for the annual reunion, and April 20, 1908 for the next business meeting.

With a few words of greeting from Father Cutler and good wishes for the continued success, the first meeting of St. Mary's Alumnae came to a pleasant close.

A REMARKABLE MEETING FOR MEN.

More than two hundred men attended the Men's Meeting in the Young People's Building yesterday afternoon. Many who were there pronounce it the most impressive service of its character that has been held in Alexandria in twenty years. Mr. E. C. Mercer, who is now engaged in the college work of the Young Men's Christian Association, told the marvelous story of his life. How he had gone out from the University of Virginia into a life of sin; down and down until his own father and all of his friends turned away from him. So disgraded, did he become by the drink habit that he could not get employment. In this condition he went to the Jerry McCauley mission on Water street, New York City, accepted Christ and started on a new life. At the death of Mr. Hadley he was appointed superintendent of the mission in which capacity he served for eighteen months, until September 1906, when he took up his present work. His father, who was a skeptic, visited his son in New York and the transformation of his son won him to faith in Christ. Mr. Mercer did not make parade of his life of shame save to convince men that there is a reality in the religion of Jesus Christ. Mrs. T. A. Hulfish sang impressively "Face to Face." T. Harvey Creighton, now of Germantown, Pa., was on the platform. Rev. Charles D. Bulla presided. A deep impression was made upon all present, and it is being said on every hand that if such services are held in the Young People's Building, it will bring untold good to the men of Alexandria.

SUICIDE OF PENSIONER.

David B. Cook, aged 84 years, a pensioner, committed suicide some time last night at the residence of Mr. Frank Smith, 504 Cameron street, where he has been living for some time. The suicide used a .32 calibre six-shooter, and the ball entered the right ear, passed through the brain, coming out at the left ear, and fell upon the bed. The members of Mr. Smith's family knew nothing about the suicide until this morning when Mrs. Smith went to Mr. Cook's room and found him dead with the pistol clasped in his hand. Dr. Moore, the coroner, was notified, but he deemed an inquest unnecessary. A few days ago the deceased made a will. At that time he was suffering from asthma. Mr. Cook was a native of New Jersey, and during the civil war was a federal soldier. He had resided in Alexandria for some time, and when his wife was living conducted a store on south Washington and Gibbon streets.

WILL PROBATED.

The will of the late Mrs. Elvira Hill was admitted to probate today and her son, Mr. Zoro Hill, qualified as executor. Among the bequests are $200 to Eunice DeSilva in trust; to her grandson, J. L. Donnelly, a house on Fairfax street, between Wolfe and Wilkes; to her daughter, Hattie Hill, a house on Prince street, between Fayette and Payne; to her sons, Zoro, J. M. and Frank Hill, each a house on Payne street, between King and Cameron. The residue of her property she leaves equally to her daughters, Mary E. and Hattie Hill. In a codicil she leaves to Hattie Hill house No. 1109 Prince street and to Mary E. and Hattie Hill house No. 211 south Royal street.

A DISMAL SUNDAY.

A cold northeasterly wind and rain rendered conditions extremely uncomfortable out of doors yesterday. Considerable rain fell, and in some places on the outskirts of the city fields were covered with water. There were also some flurries of snow, and some hail fell. The embankment of the Washington-Southern Railway at Spring Park was damaged considerably by the rains, so much so that the track on the western side of the embankment will not be used until repairs shall have been made. The embankment at that point has given trouble during the past two or three years.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at all drug stores.

PERSONAL.

Mr. W. H. Lambert is quite sick at his home on Pitt street.

Mr. Bernard B. Cline and bride, who were married Wednesday at Blackstone, have returned from their honeymoon and are residing at 224 north Fairfax street.

Councilman Evans is confined to his home by a sprained ankle. The accident was caused by jumping from the cab of a locomotive a few days ago.

Mr. Paul R. Evans is confined to his home by indisposition.

Miss Caroline M. Wise is visiting friends in St. Louis, Mo.

Messrs. David N. and Paul B. Hulfish left today for a trip through the middle-western states.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Merriwether T. Carter took place yesterday evening from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. J. W. Rice, on south Pitt street. The services were conducted by Rev. W. J. Morton, of Christ Church, and the pallbearers were Messrs. C. W. Ashby, J. P. Robinson, R. F. Knox, Brooke Carter, G. W. Ramsay and Hubert Snowden. The remains rested in a casket of Confederate gray, covered with a Confederate flag. The interment was in Bethel Cemetery and at the conclusion of the services at the grave the Confederate burial ritual was read by Adjutant C. S. Taylor, of Lee Camp.

HUSBAND ASSAULTED.

A man giving his name as Fred Hockstein, of Johnstown, Pa., came here yesterday with his little son in search of his wife, who, he said, had run off with Drew Costello and had come to this city. He reported at the station house this morning that he had gone to a house on north Lee street last night where he found his wife with Costello, and that the latter had assaulted him. He secured a warrant for the arrest of Costello and the woman and both were subsequently arrested and held for trial tomorrow.

SHOOTERS HILL.

The plans for the development of Shooters Hill as a high class residence section of the city have now been perfected by Mr. Frank L. Slaymaker, Alexandria's "New Broom" in the real estate business, who is the originator of the plan. The property is to be sub-divided into blocks and lots, with all lots large enough for every house to have a good lawn around it, and there will be careful provision made to insure the erection of a high class of dwellings. With the 25 minute schedule on the electric line from Spring Park to Pennsylvania avenue and 20 minutes by steam trains to the new Union Station, in Washington, this property will be by far the nearest high class residence section to the center of Washington in point of time, which should bring numbers of Washingtonians to live here. This plan to give Alexandria a new residence section is awaking quite a lively interest in the city, and a number of lots have already been spoken for. The technical details of the plan are given in our advertising columns.

CROPS DAMAGED BY FLOODS.

Rain and snow which fell in great quantities generally over Virginia on Saturday and yesterday have swollen the streams out of their boundaries and done inestimable damage to crops which were still on the ground. High water is expected in Richmond today, although it is not anticipated that the danger point will be reached. The water at Columbia was 15 feet beyond normal last night. The water is still rising.

Reports from other sections are to the effect that the rains have swollen the streams, which are flooding the low grounds. In the mountain section there was a heavy fall of snow Saturday night the ground being covered to a depth of several inches.

Three hundred feet of the concrete feeder walls at the Richmond Waterworks, were swept away by the high-water yesterday morning. The walls, which are 16 feet high and several feet wide, had just been completed. Quite a heavy snow fell in the northwestern part of the State.

A royal decree was issued in Lisbon today denying anarchists and political conspirators the construction of regular courts and subjecting them to the jurisdiction of a special tribunal created for the occasion. The Lisbon examining magistrate approved the first president of this court, instantly resigned.

Died from His Injuries.

London, Nov. 25.—Gen. Sir Henry Edward Colville died early today of injuries suffered last night in a collision between his motor cycle and an automobile driven by his lifelong friend and comrade-in-arms, Gen. Sir Henry Seymour Rawlinson. The accident occurred as the two vehicles turned a sharp corner of a country lane in Surrey.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Messrs. Carter Bros. are advertising a removal sale and offer great bargains to purchasers. They are now occupying their new and handsome store opposite the old store and have in hand a large and varied assortment of goods.

A professional man who was called to the country last night met with an accident which came near being very serious. His buggy broke, which frightened his horse, and the latter ran away. To stop the animal the Alexandrian ran him into a barb wire fence corner which brought him to a halt, not, however, till the horse received several bad cuts.

The members of Mount Vernon Council, No. 1, D. of A., last night listened to a Thanksgiving sermon at Trinity M. E. Church which was delivered by Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, pastor. A number of members of Martha Washington Council, of that organization, were also present.

Losing his way in the darkness, David Stunets, 54 years old, of Ballston, drove his horse and wagon into the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, near Thirty-third street, northwest, Washington, Saturday night, and narrowly escaped death by drowning. The horse was drowned.

Jerry Willis, colored, was arrested today by Deputy Marshal J. T. Glover charged with selling liquor in this city without a license. Willis was taken before U. S. Commissioner Garnett and committed to jail for further examination.

Alexandria Council No. 33 and Belle Haven Council No. 61, of the Jr. O. U. A., will have a joint Thanksgiving service at the Methodist Protestant Church Sunday evening, December 1, by Rev. G. I. Humphreys.

The Girls' Friendly will hold a fair at Christ Church parish hall on Wednesday evening from 4 to 10 o'clock. These young ladies are working in a good cause and deserve success.

Lieut. Bettis, of the police force, left on his annual vacation today. During his absence Policeman Roberts will serve as lieutenant.

Mr. J. M. Pettit sent to this office today samples of the beautiful apples which he is selling at his store, No. 717 King street, and which he is advertising in the Gazette.

The canvassers for the new city directory now being compiled by Mr. R. F. Barrett started out this morning collecting names.

Mrs. Margaret M. Moss has sold to J. F. Hibbs the house and lot at the northwest corner of St. Asaph and Wolfe streets.

Next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, will be Donation Day at the Alexandria Hospital.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather many of the churches yesterday were comparatively alimly attended.

Christmas is but one month off.

NOTICE

ALEXANDRIA PUBLIC.

I have this day accepted the agency for the Patent Fin Hot Water Heater. It is now on exhibition in my store where you can inspect same. It is the most modern up-to-date Gas-heated Hot Water Radiator in the World.

When it is considered that we must depend on some method of artificially heating our homes and public places practically half the year, and that during this time our life is largely spent indoors in an artifical atmosphere and temperature, it certainly seems natural that we should use methods of heating that would not endanger health (by violating Nature's laws of physics and physiology), nor be needlessly expensive and wasteful. Yet, the fact is, a very small proportion of our homes and business places are healthfully, comfortably and economically heated.

The Patent Fin Hot Water Radiator does this or otherwise you may return it. Come in and let us explain it.

The Paris Waiters' Trick.

"I was in a Paris cafe," said the American tourist, "when there was a sudden quarrel not far away, and I suspended my eating, as did everybody else, to see what the trouble was. It appeared that one of my countrymen, whom I had not noticed in entering, had dined at a table not far away, and when he received his check he handed the waiter a ten dollar gold piece. The waiter put the coin into his mouth and made change for $5 only. The Yankee kicked and swore there was a swindle, but the waiter took the $5 from his mouth and held it up and said:

"'See! It is here. It is the coin he gave me. Is it not for him to apologize?'

"It looked that way to me, but my countryman knew a thing or two. He grabbed the rascal by the throat and choked his mouth open, and, lo, a ten dollar gold piece dropped to the floor. The fellow had the $5 in his mouth to work the trick, and when I got to thinking the thing over I remembered that it had been successfully worked on me a dozen times over."—Chicago News.

The Ground Hog's Sleep.

The woodchuck's is a curious shift, a case of nature outdoing herself. Winter spreads far and fast, and woodchuck, in order to keep ahead out of danger, would need wings. Must he perish then? Winter spreads far, but does not go deep—down only about four feet, and woodchuck, if he cannot escape overland, can perhaps go under land. So down he goes through the winter, down into a mild and even temperature, five long feet away—but as far away from the snow and cold as bobolink among the reeds of the distant Orinoco. Indeed woodchuck's is a farther journey and even more wonderful than bobolink's, for these five feet carry him beyond the bounds of time and space into the mysterious realms of sleep, of suspended life, to the very gates of death. That he will return with bobolink, that he will come up alive with the spring out of this dark way, is very strange.—Dallas Sharp in Atlantic.

Children to Let.

Quite a flourishing trade is done by the poorer classes of Madrid, who let out their children to beggars at so much per hour. The intending hirer applies to the parents of a likely child, the price is agreed upon, a small amount paid down as a guarantee for the return of the little one, and the beggar forthwith sets out with his human implement of trade to implore the public charity. The children whose task it is to soften the hearts of the passersby are required to possess special qualifications. They must have hungry looking faces, be first rate criers and not very ugly, for a good looking child is more likely to earn extra pennies on account of its pretty face than a less favored competitor.—Madrid Herald.

Limit of Human Strength.

Experiments upon a number of men have shown that a man 5 feet high and weighing 126 pounds will lift, on an average, 156 pounds through a vertical distance of 8 inches or 217 pounds through a height of 1.2 inches. Others 6.1 feet high and weighing 183 pounds could lift the 156 pounds to a height of 13 inches or 217 pounds to a height of 6 inches. Other men 6 feet 8 inches high and weighing 188 pounds could lift 156 pounds to a height of 16 inches or 217 pounds to a height of 9 inches. By a great variety of experiments it was shown that the average human strength is equivalent to raising 30 pounds a distance of 2½ feet in a second.

"He Never Said Turkey to Me Once."

This saying was more familiar to the former than to the present generation, but comparatively few people know its origin.

An Indian and a white man who were hunting together killed a crow and a turkey.

The white man said to the Indian, "You may take the crow and I'll take the turkey, or I'll take the turkey and you may have the crow."

The Indian replied, "May be all right, but you don't say turkey to me once."—St. Louis Republic.

The Origin of the Word Filibuster.

The name "buccaneer" was chiefly affected by the English adventurers on our coast, while the French members of the profession often preferred the name of "flibustier." This word, which has since been corrupted into our familiar "filibuster," is said to have been originally a corruption, being nothing more than the French method of pronouncing the word "freebooters," which title had long been used for independent robbers.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggist. 50c

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

More Cheap Tickets to the Jamestown Exposition.

The Southern Railway, in addition to selling tickets at very low coach excursion rates on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week, will, for the month of November, commencing Monday, November 4th, also sell these tickets on Mondays. Southern Railway also sells round trip tickets to the Exposition at regular daily rates, with various final return limits. t dec 1

Quick as a Wink

That exactly expresses it. Just as quickly as you can stir the contents of one package of

Jell-O

THE DAINTY DESSERT

into a pint of boiling water, you will have prepared a dessert which will surprise and delight all who taste it. When it has become cold it will jellify and be ready to eat. For a more elaborate dessert try the following:

Banana Cream.

Peel five large bananas, rub smooth with five teaspoonfuls of sugar. Add one cup sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth, then one package of Lemon Jell-O dissolved in one and one-half cups of boiling water. Pour in mold or bowl and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Serve with whipped cream.

Italian Regard For Animals.

On the occasion I was a passenger on one of the lake steamers which ply between Desenzano and Riva. It was a day of wild wind and driving storm. At Salo a peasant of a peculiarly truculent type came on board, clad in the shaggy cloak of the district and bearing a vast blue umbrella no less indigenous. With him, too, he brought his donkey. Now, even Italian steamers do not knowingly admit quadrupeds of this size to the shelter of the fore cabin, though possibly if they did no great harm would be done or sentiment violated. The beast, therefore, was tethered on the open deck and thus became exposed to the fury of wind and weather, not to mention the wave. A British peasant would probably have accepted the situation and let him bide. Not so the Lombard. Hastily divesting himself of his ample overcoat, he spread it carefully over the lower animal's back and, unfurling his voluminous umbrella, held that patiently over the asinine head—and his own—all the way to Riva. Now, here, surely, was a good man, merciful to his beast.—London Times.

The Invention of Spinning.

The invention of the art of spinning was ascribed by the ancients to Minerva, the goddess of wisdom. The date 1500 B. C. is given as that of the beginning of the art in Greece, under the direction of the king of Arcadia, but pictured inscriptions on Egyptian monuments show that the use of the spindle and distaff was known in that country much earlier. The first distaff was simply a stick, around which the fiber to be spun was loosely coiled, held in the left hand; the spindle was a sort of top set in motion by a twirl of the hand, the fiber passing between the finger and thumb of the right hand. This invention was improved upon in the course of time by placing the spindle in a frame and making it revolve by mechanical action of the hand or foot in connection with a wheel or treadle, thus giving the true spinning wheel. The first recorded use of this was in the early years of the sixteenth century, but it was probably made and used long before this. The first spinning jenny, a machine working eight spindles, was invented in 1767.

Mermaids and Mermen.

Not many generations ago mermaids and mermen were believed in implicitly. Says the Aberd en Almanac of New Prognostications For the Year 1688: "To conclude for this year 1688. Near the place where the famous Dee payeth his tribute to the German ocean, if curious observers of wonderful things in nature will be pleased thither to resort the 1, 13 and 29 of May and in divers other times in the ensuing summer, as also in the harvest time, to the 7 and 14 October, they will undoubtedly see a pretty company of mar maids, creatures of admirable beauty and likewise hear their charming sweet melodious voices—

"In well tun'd measures and harmonious lays,
Extol their maker and his bounty praise.
That godly honest men, in everything,
In quiet peace may live, God save the king!"

Heaving the Log.

Heaving the log is one of those picturesque sea expressions with which all landsmen are acquainted, though probably few could explain the exact process. The "log" is a quadrant shaped piece of wood loaded with lead at the curve. The line to which it is attached is 120 fathoms long and is divided by knots into equal distances of forty-seven feet each. These distances are the same fraction of a nautical mile (a knot) as twenty-eight seconds is of one hour. Consequently the number of knots that slip off the reel in twenty-eight seconds after the "log" is in the water is the speed per hour that the ship is making.—St. James' Gazette.

By R. F. Knox, Auctioneer.

SALE OF VALUABLE REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, including valuable MACHINE SHOPS AND FOUNDRY, ALL EQUIPMENT AND MACHINERY, AND A NUMBER OF BOILERS, ENGINES, AND A QUANTITY OF BRASS, IRON, ETC.

Pursuant to a decree of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, entered on the tenth day of October, 1907, in a chancery cause therein depending, wherein Charles W. Moore is the plaintiff, and T. Alton Moore et als are defendants, the undersigned will offer for sale at public auction, on the 19th day of December, 1907,

THURSDAY,

at 11 o'clock a. m., in front of the machine shop known as W. S Moore's Sons, the following real estate and personal property in the city of Alexandria, Virginia:

The place of sale may be transferred from one piece of property to another, if deemed advisable.

The machine shop and foundry and all the machinery used in connection therewith, and all patterns belonging to the firm of W. S. Moore's Sons, may be sold as a whole or separately. Offers for the said property at private sale may be submitted at any time before the said sale, as a whole or separately. The property to be sold is as follows:

1. All that lot of ground beginning on the north side of Duke street, 88 feet 9 inches west of Union street, and at the west line of an alley 18 feet 9 inches wide and running thence west on Duke street 17 feet; thence north 100 feet; thence east 17 feet, and thence south in a direct line 100 feet to the beginning, with the right of way over the said alley.

2. All that lot of ground with the dwelling house thereon beginning on the north side of Duke street 105 feet 9 inches west of Union street, and running thence west on Duke street 23 feet; thence north parallel to Union street 100 feet; thence east parallel to Duke street 23 feet, and thence south in a direct line 100 feet to the point of beginning.

3. All that lot of ground beginning on the north side of Duke street 153 feet 9 inches west of Union street and running thence west on Duke street 22 feet 10 inches; thence north parallel to Union street 100 feet; thence east parallel to Duke street 22 feet 10 inches; thence south in a direct line 100 feet to the beginning.

4. All that lot of ground with the dwelling house and improvements thereon, beginning at a point on the west side of Lee street 176 feet 7 inches south of Wolfe street, and running thence southwardly with Lee street 33 feet 9 inches; thence westwardly parallel to Wolfe street 123 feet 5 inches; thence northwardly parallel to Lee street 33 feet 9 inches, and thence eastwardly parallel to Wolfe street 123 feet 5 inches to the beginning, together with all rights and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

5. All that lot of ground with the improvements thereon beginning on the west side of Lee street 210 feet 4 inches south of Wolfe street, and running thence south on Lee street 16 feet 3 inches; thence west parallel to Wolfe street 123 feet 5 inches; thence north parallel to Lee street 16 feet 3 inches, and thence east in a direct line 123 feet 5 inches to the point of beginning.

6. All that lot of ground in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, with the buildings thereon, consisting of two dwelling houses, beginning in the center of the square bounded by Fairfax, Lee, Wolfe and Wilkes streets, at a point equally distant from Fairfax and Lee streets in one direction, and from Wolfe and Wilkes streets in the other direction, and at the south line of an alley 20 feet wide, and running east with the line, formerly Keith's, 47 feet; thence north parallel to Lee street 25 feet 4 inches; thence west parallel to Wolfe street 47 feet to the said alley, and then by a straight line to the beginning, with the right of way in common with others entitled thereto over a strip of land 2 feet 8 inches wide, extending from the east line of said ground to Lee street, binding on the line formerly Keith's.

7. All that lot of ground with the building thereon, used as a foundry, situated on the north side of Duke street and west of Union street, and their intersection, in front on Duke street 70 feet, and on Union street 30 feet, the back lines being of the same length respectively as the corresponding front lines, and binding on an alley 18 feet 9 inches wide running north from Duke street, and binding on the east line of said property, with the right of way over the said alley.

8. Beginning on an alley thirty feet wide running from Union street westwardly, at a point 88 feet 9 inches west of Union street and 148 feet 4 inches north of Duke street, and running thence west on said alley 40 feet; thence south parallel to Union street 48 feet 4 inches; thence east parallel to Duke street 40 feet, to an alley 18 feet 9 inches wide; thence along said last named alley 48 feet 4 inches to the point of beginning, with the right of way over said alleys in common with others entitled thereto.

9. All that lot of ground improved by a building used as a machine shop, beginning at the intersection of the south side of Duke street with the west side of Potomac Strand, and running thence southwardly with the west side of the said Potomac Strand 100 feet to the north line of an alley 20 feet wide, which extends with that width westwardly from said Strand a distance of 93 feet, thence westwardly with the north line of said alley 62 feet; thence north parallel to the first line 100 feet to Duke street, and thence east on Duke street 62 feet to the beginning, with the right of way over and the use of said Strand and alley in common with others entitled thereto.

10. All that machinery used in connection with the said machine shop and foundry, together with a great number of patterns used in connection with said machine shop and foundry, and also a number of boilers, engines, and a lot of iron, brass, unions, piping, tools, coke, etc., and one automobile.

Terms of sale: Cash as to personalty, and one-third cash and the balance in 6 and 12 months as to realty, title to be retained until all the purchase money is paid, or all cash at the option of the purchaser.
